

The history and people of Addison County are as rich and vibrant as the landscape that makes this place so special. Living in Vermont during the early 1900's was as much a challenge as it was a wonderful way of life.

The stories and memories shared by the folks that lived during these challenging times provide a vivid glimpse into the Life in Addison County.

Residents Interviewed: Eugene Bagley, Gertrude Bingham, Erwin Clark, Clara Cunningham, Pete Gipson, Gerald Heffernan, Bill Keyes, Bill Parrish, Diana Parks, Jean Sargeant, Art Sherman, George Smith & Mary Sullivan.

This DVD is dedicated to the memory of educator and representative Greg Clark

To order: www.peregrineproductions.com